

The Covenant Family Line from Abraham and Sarah

These two charts present the genealogical data provided in the book of Genesis for Abraham and Sarah's family (beginning in Genesis 11:26). The first chart follows a standard assumption that Haran was the father of Sarai/Sarah, although the Bible never names her father. Based on Genesis 20:12, Sarah was either Abraham's half-sister or his niece (see Detail: Wife-Sister Theme, page 52).
